Lift Every Voice & Sing

1 Lift ev'ry voice and sing, Till earth and heaven ring,
Ring with the harmonies of liberty; Let our rejoicing rise High as the list'ning skies,
Let it resound loud as the rolling sea.
Sing a song full of the faith that the dark past has taught us,
Sing a song full of the hope that the present has brought us;
Facing the rising sun
Of our new day begun, Let us march on till victory is won.

2 Stony the road we trod, Bitter the chast'ning rod,
Felt in the days when hope unborn had died;
Yet with a steady beat, Have not our weary feet
Come to the place for which our people sighed?
We have come over a way that with tears has been watered;
We have come, treading our path through the blood of the slaughtered; Out from the gloomy past,
Till now we stand at last Where the bright gleam of our bright star is cast.

3 God of our weary years, God of our silent tears,
Thou who hast brought us thus far on the way; Thou who hast by Thy might,
Led us into the light, Keep us forever in the path, we pray.
Lest our feet stray from the places, our God, where we met Thee,
Lest our hearts, drunk with the wine of the world, we forget Thee; Shadowed beneath Thy

#3 Children

Hear, O Israel: The LORD is our God, the LORD alone.

You shall love the Lord your God with all Your Heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might. Keep these words that I am commanding you today in your heart.

Recite them to your children and talk about them when you are at home and when you are away, when you lie down and when you rise.

Bind them as a sign on your hand, fix them as an emblem on your forehead, and write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

Even children make themselves known by their acts, by whether what they do is pure and right. Train children in the right way and when old, they will not stray.

Remember your creator in the days of your youth, before the days of trouble come, and the years draw near when you will say, "I have no pleasure in them."

He established a decree in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our ancestors to teach to their children.

That the next generation might know them, the children yet unborn, and rise up and tell them to their children.

So that they should set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments; and that they should not be like their ancestors, a stubborn and rebellious generation.

The wolf shall live with the lamb, the leopard shall lie down with the kid, the calf and the lion and the fatling together, and a little child shall lead them.
